South Africa's Koeberg facility – so far the only nuclear power station ever completed in Africa. (Image: Rodger Bosch / AFP)

Should Africa push the nuclear button?

To its advocates, nuclear energy is the best way to meet Africa's huge energy needs, while also eliminating carbon emissions. Critics insist that nuclear is unaffordable and that its use threatens environmental catastrophe.

Proponents argue that nuclear does not cause carbon emissions, provides constant power supply, and has a facility lifespan of almost 2.4 times that of solar or wind.

Critics point to the costs of construction, waste management and eventual decommissioning – projects around the world have seen major cost overruns. Furthermore, many African nations' power systems cannot absorb the output of such huge power facilities.

Then there's humanity's ever-present fear of nuclear accidents and nuclear terrorism – regulating and securing nuclear sites are beyond the capabilities of some African states.

A potential middle way is the advent of small modular reactors, prefabricated units designed to provide a much lower power output than their conventional cousins. Whether it can be done at scale and competitive cost is up for debate, but, concludes one industry figure, "if Africa has a future nuclear sector, it's going to be small" >>Read more

Terms + Conditions

The following are certain terms and conditions governing advertising published in African Business magazine (the "Magazine"). Submission of insertion order for placement of advertising in the Magazine constitutes acceptance of the following terms and conditions. No terms or conditions in any insertion orders, instructions or documents other than this Rate Card will be binding on IC Publications ("Publisher") unless Publisher agrees to such terms and conditions in writing.

1. AGENCY COMMISSION AND PAYMENT

Submission of insertion order by advertising agency on behalf of advertiser constitutes agency's agreement to pay all invoices for placement of advertising in the Magazine pursuant to such insertion order. Notwithstanding the foregoing, submission of insertion order constitutes agreement that advertiser guarantees prompt and full payment for such advertising in the event of material default by agency. Agency and advertiser are jointly and severally liable for the payment of all invoices arising from placement of advertising in the Magazine. Agency commission (or equivalent): fifteen percent (15%) of gross advertising space charges, payable only to recognized agents. Invoices are rendered on or about the on-sale date of the Magazine. Payments are due within thirty (30) days after the billing date. No agency commission is payable, and Publisher will not grant any discounts, on production charges. Any discounts received by advertiser on advertising space charges may not be applied to production charges.

CANCELLATION AND CHANGES

Publisher expressly reserves the right to reject or cancel for any reason at any time any insertion order or advertisement without liability, even if previously acknowledged or accepted. Advertisers may not cancel orders for, or make changes in, advertising after the closing dates of the Magazine. The rates and conditions of advertising in the Magazine are subject to change without notice.

PUBLISHER'S LIABILITY

Publisher is not liable for any failure or delay in printing, publishing, or circulating any copies of the issue of the Magazine in which advertising is placed pursuant to an insertion order that is caused by, or arising from, an act of God, accident, fire, strike, terrorism or other occurrence beyond Publisher's control. Publisher is not liable for any failure or delay in publishing in the Magazine any advertisement submitted to it. Publisher does not guarantee positioning of advertisements in the Magazine, is not liable for failure to meet positioning requirements and is not liable for any error in key numbers. The liability of Publisher for any act, error or omission for which it may be held legally responsible shall not exceed the cost of the advertising space affected by the error. In no event shall Publisher be liable for any indirect, consequential, special or incidental damages, including, but not limited to, lost income or profits.

4. MISCELLANEOUS

Advertising agency and advertiser each represents and warrants that each advertisement submitted by it for publication in the Magazine contains no copy, illustrations, photographs, text or other content that may result in any claim against Publisher. Advertising agency and advertiser each shall indemnify and hold harmless Publisher from and against any damages and related expenses (including attorneys' fees) arising from the content of advertisements, including, but not limited to, claims of invasion of privacy, unauthorized use of names or pictures of living persons, trademark infringement, copyright infringement, libel and misrepresentation. Publisher's acceptance of an advertisement for publication in the Magazine does not constitute an endorsement of the product or service advertised. No advertiser or agency may use the Magazine's name or logo without Publisher's prior written permission for each such use. The word "advertisement" will be placed above all advertisements that, in Publisher's opinion, resembles editorial matter.
